AN OVERVIEW

Sanjay Gandhi Post Graduate Institute of Medical Sciences has been established under the State Legislature Act in 1983. It was created by the state of Uttar Pradesh as a Centre of excellence for providing medical care, education, and research of the highest order. The institute is situated in a 550-acre campus at Raebareli Road, 15 km from the main city. Lucknow is located about 500 km east of New Delhi and is the capital of Uttar Pradesh. It is rated among the top medical institutions in the country. A highly skilled and dedicated faculty provides quality education and state-of-the-art patient care and is involved in research that strives to meet the needs of society. The Institute awards DM, M.Ch., MD and MS degrees that are recognized by the National Medical Commission of India. It also offers a PhD program, a 2-year Master in Hospital Administration (MHA) program (approved by the University Grant Commission) and one-year Post-Doctoral Certificate Courses (PDCC), One-year Post-Doctoral Fellowship (PDF) & two years Post-Doctoral Advance Fellowship (PDAF) courses in different medical specialties. In addition, the Institute offers several non-degree/non-certificate training positions, such as Senior Resident (hospital services) and Junior Resident (Non-academic) positions in several medical specialties, a Senior Demonstrator program in Molecular Medicine & Biotechnology, Statistical Fellows in Biostatistics and Health Informatics and a Medical Physics Resident program in Radiotherapy. For para-medical training, the Institute has started Diploma, B.Sc. and M.Sc. courses in Medical Technology in different super-specialty subjects.

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT OF HOSPITAL ADMINISTRATION

Hospital plays a very important role in delivery of health care services. With advancement in the field of medicine, hospitals are able to offer a wide variety of health services. Therefore, the role of Hospital Administration is increasing day by day for effective and efficient delivery of medical services. Patient satisfaction, cost containment, quality medical care, are the main output forum of hospital delivery system which can be achieved by using the management concept and techniques by the trained/qualified hospitals administrator/ health care providers.

The Department of Hospital Administration has been performing the teaching, training and research programs for the last 18 years. The academic Department of Hospital Administration was established on 10th May 2008. The department has replaced One-year full time Diploma in Hospital Administration program with Two Year MHA Program. MD & PhD programs, PDCC have also been approved for the department.

The Department of Hospital Administration is dedicated to teaching, training & research on all the issues that directly or remotely relate to the hospital management/administration. The operational objectives of the department are to facilitate the patient care services, at all levels, in order to achieve excellence through evidence-based administration. The Department of Hospital Administration is also actively involved in organizing training program/seminars for Central Govt. as well as State Govt. health services officers on various aspects of hospital administration and patient care management.
